American Society of Hematology

2014 HONORIFIC AWARDS NOMINATIONS

Wallace H. Coulter Award for Lifetime Achievement in Hematology

Nomination Deadline: July 2, 2013

Named for Wallace Henry Coulter, a prolific inventor who made important contributions to hematology and to ASH, this award is the Society's highest honor. It is bestowed on an individual who has demonstrated a lifetime commitment and outstanding contribution to hematology, and who has made a significant impact on education, research, and/or practice. During his lifetime, Mr. Coulter was a strong supporter of ASH; to date, he is the only person to receive the American Society of Hematology Distinguished Service Award for his enormous contribution to the field of hematology.

Nominations must include the completed nomination form and a letter of nomination summarizing his or her contributions to hematology, including the reason for the nomination. In addition, a current copy of the nominee's CV must be submitted with the nomination form. This award will be presented at the 2014 ASH Annual Meeting. Only one form may be submitted per nominee.

NOTE: Nominees and nominator are not required to be members of ASH.
